

The folder name corresponds to the table in task 2, where the name of the folder describes the content and performance of the program. E.g. g1-loop means it is good, the first program which is a loop. Inside each folder, it contains xxx.c xxx.bc and output folder. To run the each program, simply run klee xxx.bc or run klee-stats klee-out-x.